A reading from Isaiah

All Services

⁶On this mountain the LORD of hosts will make for all peoples
a feast of rich food, a feast of well-aged wines, of rich food filled with marrow, of well-aged wines strained clear.

⁷And he will destroy on this mountain
the shroud that is cast over all peoples,
the sheet that is spread over all nations;

⁸he will swallow up death forever.

Then the Lord GOD will wipe away the tears from all faces, and the disgrace of his people he will take away from all the earth,
for the LORD has spoken.

⁹It will be said on that day,
Lo, this is our God; we have waited for him, so that he might save us.
This is the LORD for whom we have waited;
let us be glad and rejoice in his salvation.

The word of the Lord.

READING: Psalm 24

Early Service Only

“We will read the Psalm responsively.”

L: ¹The earth is the LORD's and all that is in it, the world, and those who live in it;

C: ²for he has founded it on the seas, and established it on the rivers.

L ³Who shall ascend the hill of the LORD? And who shall stand in his holy place?

C: ⁴Those who have clean hands and pure hearts, who do not lift up their souls to what is false, and do not swear deceitfully.

L: ⁵They will receive blessing from the LORD, and vindication from the God of their salvation.

C: ⁶Such is the company of those who seek him, who seek the face of the God of Jacob.

L: ⁷Lift up your heads, O gates! and be lifted up, O ancient doors! that the King of glory may come in.

C: ⁸Who is the King of glory? The LORD, strong and mighty, the LORD, mighty in battle.

L: ⁹Lift up your heads, O gates! and be lifted up, O ancient doors! that the King of glory may come in.

C: ¹⁰Who is this King of glory? The LORD of hosts, he is the King of glory.
